The Supreme Court of Bangladesh

The Supreme Court established under the constitution of Bangladesh is the highest Court of the Republic. It has two Divisions, namely, Appellate Division and the High Court Division. High Court Division has original, appellate and other jurisdictions, powers and functions conferred on it by the Constitution or by any other law. On the other hand, Appellate Division hears and disposes of appeals from judgments, decrees, orders or sentences of the High Court Division. The Appellate Division has power to issue such directions, orders, decrees or writs as may be necessary for doing complete justice in any cause or matter pending before it, including orders for the purpose of securing the attendance of any person or the discovery or production of any document.

The Supreme Court is headed by the honorable Chief Justice of Bangladesh.

History of Higher Judiciary in the Territory of Bangladesh:

The territorial area of Bangladesh originally being a part and parcel of the then Indian Sub-continent, the history of its legal system may be traced back to 1726, when King George-I issued a Charter changing the judicial administration of the Presidency towns of Calcutta, Bombay and Madras, through which the Civil and Criminal Courts, as established, started deriving their authority from the King. During the Mughal Empire the East India Company by taking settlement from the Emperor created the three presidency towns namely Madras, Bombay and Calcutta and introduced the English legal system for administration of the presidency towns and thus the English Judicial system got entry into the Sub-continent. The filing of the appeals from the then India to the Privy-Council in England was introduced by the Charter of 1726 and thereafter to bring about change in the management of the then East India Company, the East India Company Regulating Act, 1773 was introduced to place the East India Company under the control of the British Government and provision was made for establishment of a Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William, Calcutta, through Charter or Letters Patent. The Supreme Court of Judicature at Fort William in Bengal was established by Letters Patent issued on March 26, 1774, which as a Court of Record had power and authority to dispose of all complaints against the Majesty's subjects in respect of any crime, suit or action within the territory of Bengal, Bihar and Orissa. By an Act passed in 1833 the Privy-Council was transformed into an Imperial Court of unimpeachable authority, which played a great role as a unifying force for establishment of rule of law in the Indian Sub-continent. The judicial system of the then India was re-organized by introducing the Indian High Court's Act 1861 by which High Courts were established, abolishing the Supreme Courts at Fort William Calcutta, Madras and Bombay, and the High Courts established were conferred with Civil, Criminal, Admiralty, Testamentary, Matrimonial Jurisdictions with Original and Appellate Jurisdiction. With the transfer of power from the British Parliament to the people on division of the then India, the High Court of Bengal (Order) 1947 was promulgated under the Indian Independence Act, 1947, and the High Court of Judicature for East Bengal at Dhaka was established as a separate High Court for the then East Pakistan and the said High Court was commonly known as the Dhaka High Court vested with all Appellate, Civil and original jurisdictions. With the enforcement of the Constitution of Islamic Republic of Pakistan in 1956, the Supreme Court of Pakistan was established as the apex Court of the country, consisting of East Pakistan and West Pakistan, in place of Federal Court, with the appellate jurisdiction to hear the decisions of the High Courts established in the provinces of Pakistan. The Dhaka High Court had the jurisdiction to issue writs in the nature of Habeas Corpus, Mandamus, Prohibition, Quo-warranto and Certiorari, with further authority to declare any law promulgated violating the provisions of the Constitution as void.

Use of Distinctive Flag by Judges:

The Judges of the then High Court of East Pakistan in Dhaka had been using flag in their cars pursuant to a letter dated August 1, 1957 issued by the then Central Government in the Ministry of Interior vide memo no. 6/4/56 Public.

No Sooner had we achieved independence than the judges of the Supreme Court started using flag in the cars inscribing the official emblem of the Supreme Court with an additional word "Justice". "Scale", the official emblem of the Supreme Court, signifies "Rule of Law" which the judges are oath bound to establish. The flag used by the judges in their cars, with the efflux of time, has become a great heritage. The judges carry this heritage till they are in office. This heritage will continue from generation to generation.

Supreme Court under the Constitution of Bangladesh:

Initially after liberation the apex Court was named as High Court of Bangladesh set up under the President's Order No.5 of 1972 (High Court of Bangladesh Order, 1972) and after the framing of the Constitution and adoption thereof by the Constituent Assembly on 4.11.1972 with effect from 16.12.1972, the "Supreme Court of Bangladesh" has been established under Chapter-I Part-VI of the Constitution of the People's Republic of Bangladesh.

The Supreme Court of Bangladesh, with the judges and the Chief Justice, is the repository of all judicial power and final interpreter of the Constitution of the People's Republic of Bangladesh as well as the defender of the Constitution and rule of law in the country. Part-VI of the Constitution relates to jurisdiction of the Courts. It contains 3 chapters of which Chapter-I provides for power and authority of the Supreme Court, Chapter-2 for Sub-ordinate Courts and Chapter-3 for Administrative Tribunal.

Appointment and Removal of Judges:

Chapter-I contains articles 94 to 113. Article 94 relates to the setting up of the Supreme Court of Bangladesh comprising the Appellate Division and the High Court Division. The Supreme Court consists of the Chief Justice and such number of other judges, as the President may deem it necessary to appoint in each of the Divisions. The Constitution provides for one Chief Justice for both the Divisions. The Chief Justice and the judges of the Appellate Division sit in the Appellate Division, whereas the judges of the High Court Division sit in the High Court Division. The Chief Justice is known as the Chief Justice of Bangladesh. Article 95 of the Constitution provides that the Chief Justice and other judges shall be appointed by the President and a person shall not be qualified for appointment as a judge unless he is a citizen of Bangladesh and has acquired the required qualifications as enumerated in Article 95. As per article 96, a judge shall not be removed from office unless he has ceased to be capable of properly performing his functions of office or has been guilty of gross misconduct, through an inquiry to be conducted by the Supreme Judicial Council, consisting of the Chief Justice and the next two senior judges, and the judges are to observe the prescribed Code of Conduct framed by the Supreme Judicial Council. Article 97 provides for temporary appointment for performing the functions of the Chief Justice, as and when necessary, if his office becomes vacant on account of his absence, illness or any other cause, to the next most senior judge of the Appellate Division. Article 98 provides for appointment of Additional Judge(s) in the Supreme Court for any period not exceeding two years and a judge of the High Court Division may be required to sit in the Appellate Division for a temporary period as an ad-hoc judge. Normally, a judge is appointed on regular basis under article 95 of the Constitution. Article 100 of the Constitution provides that the permanent seat of the Supreme Court shall be in the Capital. However, judges of the High Court Division may be required to sit at such other place or places as the Chief Justice may, with the approval of the President, from time to time appoint.

Functions of the Supreme Court:

Articles 101 and 102 provide for the jurisdiction and power of the High Court Division in exercising its judicial functions and articles 103, 104 and 105 provide for the jurisdiction and power of the Appellate Division in exercising its judicial functions. The Appellate Division is also given the advisory jurisdiction to give opinion to any question of law relating to such national and public importance as may appear to the President, which may be referred to by him under Article 106. Article 107 provides for the rule making power of the Supreme Court and the authority of the Chief Justice in constituting Benches of any Division. Article 108 empowers the Supreme Court to order investigation and award punishment for any contempt. Article 111 declares the binding effect of law declared by the Appellate Division on all authority of the Republic and the Courts including the High Court Division and the binding effect of the law declared by the High Court Division upon all authority of the Republic and the Subordinate Courts. Article 112 requires all authority, executive and judicial, in the Republic to act in aid of the Supreme Court. Article 107 provides for the Supreme Court to make rules for regulating, practice and procedure of both the Divisions of the Supreme Court or any Sub-ordinate Court, subject to the approval of the President, and article 113 gives the authority to the Chief Justice or such other judge or officer, as he may direct, for appointment of staff of Supreme Court in accordance with the rules framed with previous approval of the President, and such appointment and service condition of the Supreme Court staff are guided by the rules framed by the Division concerned. The power to issue writs to redress the violation of fundamental rights detailed in Part-III of the Constitution and the authority to declare any law promulgated inconsistent with the rights guaranteed under Part-III of the Constitution, as void have been exclusively vested with the High Court Division under the provisions of articles 44 and 102 of the Constitution. Article 109 has given the High Court Division the power and authority of superintendence and control over all Courts and Tribunals, subordinate to it. Article 110 authorizes the High Court Division to withdraw any case from any Court subordinate to it which involves a substantial question of law as to the interpretation of the constitution, or a point of general public importance, the determination of which is necessary for disposal of the case and to determine the question of law and return the case to the Court from which it has been withdrawn and to transfer it to any other subordinate court. Article 114 provides for establishment of Courts sub-ordinate to the Supreme Court and normally the sub-ordinate Courts under civil jurisdiction are set up under the provisions of the Civil Courts Act, 1887 and those of criminal jurisdiction are set up under the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898. Persons employed in judicial service and Magistracy are independent in exercising their respective judicial functions.

The Appellate Division of the Supreme Court of Bangladesh has 10 (Ten) judges including the Chief Justice and the High Court Division has 97 (Ninty Seven) judges.

From the Desk of the Chief Justice of Bangladesh

Justice Md. Muzammel Hossain

Supreme Court
Dhaka-1000.

Presenting the Bangladesh Supreme Court Annual Report, 2013 before the nation is a matter of great pleasure for us. Our Constitution is the ‘suprema lex’ of the land. All the three organs of the State, namely, the Executive, the Legislature and the Judiciary owe their existence to the Constitution. It is a truism that the Judiciary thrives upon the confidence of the people. This confidence of the people is the greatest strength of the Judiciary. The unique feature of the Judiciary is its power of judicial review. This power of judicial review is exercised by the Supreme Court as per mandate of the Constitution. The Supreme Court has the authority and power to circumscribe and keep the actions and activities of the Executive and the Legislature within the constitutional and legal limits. But none the less, the Judiciary is co-ordinate and co-equal with the other two organs of the State. However, those organs of the State have been functioning within the parameters set by the Constitution. Through judicial activism, the horizon of the judicial review is being expanded in Bangladesh for the benefit and welfare of its citizens. The Supreme Court of Bangladesh invariably plays a healing role when the Ship of the State is caught up in rough and stormy weather.

As the apex court of the country, the Supreme Court of Bangladesh is the guardian and final interpreter of the Constitution. Ours is an independent Judiciary. An independent and strong Judiciary is a sine qua non for flourishing of democracy in a progressive polity. The Supreme Court of Bangladesh is firmly committed to ensure the rule of law and to preserve and protect the right, liberties and freedom of the people of Bangladesh as guaranteed by the Constitution. The Supreme Court takes pride in its accomplishments in these fields.

Though the Supreme Court is the highest judicial authority in this country, yet it might be astounding to hear that the Court was functioning with severe shortage of manpower half of whom numbering around 900 staff have been holding temporary posts renewable on year-to-year retention basis. Steps have been taken to make all these posts permanent by the middle of 2014. Once these staff become permanent, they will work for the institution to the best of their ability. Measures have been taken to modernize the libraries of both the Divisions of the Supreme Court and to support that end, steps have been taken to increase manpower through creating new posts. To provide healthcare facilities to the Judges, a medical centre with officers, staff and ambulance and other facilities have been established. Along with renovation of the Appellate Division, other measures like constructing three gates and the fence around the Supreme Court premises have been made to strengthen the security and elegance of the Court.

Hopefully, a museum in the Supreme Court of Bangladesh will be inaugurated in 2014. With that end in view, we have already collected various articles/artefacts for the museum which will reveal the age-old tradition and heritage of the Judiciary for our posterity. Besides, a recreation centre, namely, “Judges’ Corner” will be established in the Supreme Court premises in the near future. As the nature of our job, it goes without saying, is very strenuous, arduous, taxing and demanding, the contemplated “Judges’ Corner” will be a center of recreation and pleasure.

The Judicial Strengthening Project (JUST Project) undertaken in collaboration with the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) will come to an end on 30th June, 2015. Under the JUST Project, the working procedures of the Court are being computerized and automated. The introduction of Information and Communication Technology (ICT) tools in the justice-delivery system of Bangladesh will improve case management and court administration and help reduce the backlog of cases significantly in near future. Over and above, the Judiciary has been provided with some logistic support by the JUST Project to enhance the capacity of the justice-delivery system. However, the Judge: case ratio is adverse in Bangladesh where the population is approximately one hundred and sixty million. So the number of Judges should be increased proportionately in order to cope with the workload.

Unless we make necessary changes in the procedural law to expedite the process of disposal of civil and criminal cases, we can not provide justice to the people. Towards that end, the Supreme Court (High Court Division) Rules, 1973 have been amended. New Rules incorporating many provisions are aimed at reducing the case backlog by introducing and recognizing computer technology in procedural matters. In the subordinate courts, there were vacancies in all tiers. Initiatives have been taken to give promotions to the deserving persons holding judicial posts in subordinate courts to fill up the vacancies. Now the situation has considerably improved and in future with many more deserving promotions and appointments, the present vacuum in the subordinate courts will wither away and the people will get speedy justice.

For independence of the Subordinate Judiciary and also for effective superintendence and control over it as provided by Article 109 of the Constitution, a separate Judicial Secretariat is direly needed. I have already taken an initiative to establish a separate Judicial Secretariat in accordance with the Full Court's decision taken on 06.12.2013. But in this regard, the co-operation of the Government is indispensably necessary.

I express my heartfelt gratitude to my learned brother and sister Judges for contributing their mite in upholding the image of the Supreme Court of Bangladesh. I appreciate the Supreme Court Registry for competency and efficiency in carrying out the assigned duties. I am also indebted to the Bar for their valuable assistance rendered to various Benches of the Supreme Court in arriving at correct decisions. I believe, the Judiciary will be able to achieve the highest standard of excellence by collective thinking, concerted and co-ordinated actions.

Jurisdiction of the Supreme Court

The jurisdiction of the Supreme Court of Bangladesh has been provided for in the Constitution of the People's Republic of Bangladesh. Article 94(1) of the Constitution provides that there shall be Supreme Court for Bangladesh comprising the Appellate Division and the High Court Division. These two Divisions of the Supreme Court have separate jurisdictions. The sources of this jurisdiction, apart from the Constitution, are general laws (Acts of Parliament) of the country.

Jurisdiction of the Appellate Division

The Constitution has conferred on the Appellate Division the following jurisdictions:

- a. Appellate Jurisdiction: Article 103 of the Constitution provides that the Appellate Division shall have jurisdiction to hear and determine appeals from judgments, decrees, orders or sentences of the High Court Division. An appeal to the Appellate Division shall lie as of right where the High Court Division- (a) certifies that the case involves a substantial question of law as to the interpretation of the Constitution; or (b) has sentenced or confirmed the sentence of a person to death or to imprisonment for life; or (c) has imposed punishment on a person for contempt of that division; and in other cases if the Appellate Division grants leave to appeal and also pursuant to Acts of Parliament.
- b. Issue and execution of processes of Appellate Division: Under article 104, the Appellate Division shall have power to issue such directions, orders, decrees or writs as may be necessary for doing complete justice in any cause or matter pending before it, including orders for the purpose of securing the attendance of any person or the discovery or production of any document.
- c. Power of Review: Article 105 provides that the Appellate Division shall have power, subject to the provisions of any Act of Parliament and of any rules made by the Division, to review any judgment pronounced or any order made by it. Part IV, Order XXVI of the Supreme Court of Bangladesh (Appellate Division) Rules, 1988 deals with the power and procedural matters of review of the Appellate Division.
- d. Advisory Jurisdiction: Article 106 of the Constitution provides that if at any time it appears to the President that question of law has arisen, or is likely to arise, which is of such a nature and of such public importance that it is expedient to obtain the opinion of the Supreme Court upon it, he may refer the question to the Appellate Division for consideration and the Division may, after such hearing as it thinks fit, report its opinion thereon to the President.
- e. Rule making power of the Supreme Court: Subject to any law made by Parliament, the Supreme Court may with the approval of the President, make rules for regulating the practice and procedure of each Division of the Supreme Court and of any Court subordinate to it.

Jurisdiction of the High Court Division

Article 101 of the Constitution provides that the High Court Division shall have such original, appellate and other jurisdictions, powers and functions as are or may be conferred on it by the Constitution or any other law.

- a. Original Jurisdiction: Original jurisdiction of the High Court Division means that jurisdiction whereby it can hear a case or suit as Court of first instance. The Constitution has conferred on the High Court Division special Original Jurisdiction under Article 102 of the Constitution, under which the High Court Division can enforce fundamental rights guaranteed in Part III of the Constitution and can also exercise its power of judicial review. There are some other ordinary laws (Acts of Parliament) namely, The Companies Act, 1994; The Admiralty Court Act, 2000; The Bank Companies Act, 1991; Will and Probate under Succession Act, 1925; The Divorce Act, 1869; The Representation of the People Order, 1972; Bangladesh Merchant Shipping Ordinance, 1983; The Contempt of Courts Act, 1926 etc.) which fall under the ordinary/original jurisdiction of the High Court Division. Further jurisdiction of the High Court Division is guided by the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 and The Supreme Court (High Court Division) Rules, 1973.

- b. Appellate Jurisdiction: Any law may confer on the High Court Division appellate jurisdiction on any matter. The Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898; The Code of Civil Procedure, 1908; Section 42 of Value Added Tax Act, 1991; Section 196D of the Customs Act, 1969 etc and the High Court Division Rules, 1973 have conferred on the High Court Division appellate jurisdiction.
- c. Revisional Jurisdiction: (a) Section 115 of The Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 has conferred on the High Court Division the revisional jurisdiction. The High Court Division may examine the decisions of the courts subordinate to it.
- (b) Section 439 of The Code of Criminal Procedure, 1898 has conferred on the High Court Division the revisional jurisdiction as to criminal matters of the courts subordinate to it. Furthermore, the High Court Division has inherent power under section 561A of the Code of Criminal Procedure, to make such orders as may be necessary to give effect to any order under this Code or to prevent abuse of the process of any court or otherwise to secure the ends of justice.
- d. Review Jurisdiction: Section 114 of The Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 has conferred on the High Court Division the review jurisdiction. The High Court Division Rules, 1973 Part II, Chapter X and Order XLVII of the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 deal with the procedural matters of review.
- e. Jurisdiction as to Superintendence and Control over Courts Subordinate to it: Article 109 of the Constitution provides that the High Court Division shall have superintendence and control over all Courts and Tribunals subordinate to it. As part of its supervisory power over the subordinate judiciary, the Hon'ble Chief Justice Mr. Md. Muzammel Hossain visited several courts of subordinate judiciary in the year 2013. The Supreme Court developed different softwares following the digitalization of Supreme Court case management system as well as the judiciary. Steps were taken to initiate e-registration of cases in the Supreme Court and all the case registers were digitalized. Supreme Court designed its own website (www.supremecourt.gov.bd.com). Online Cause List of both Divisions of the Supreme Court of Bangladesh can be found in its website. Litigant public can find information about any case by sending SMS to number 2233 by following the format: SC<space> case type<space> case number/year. ID number for different type of cases can be found in the website. Cases can also be searched through the website. To find it, they need to provide at least the case number. By clicking on the case number anyone can find basic information about the case, current status, case history and orders of the Courts. Concerned staff were trained in respect of online cause list preparation and uploading, e-registration of cases, judgment uploading in the server etc.

The information technology (IT) Department of the Supreme Court prepared an online data regarding personal life and service of the judges of the subordinate courts by a prescribed Form {Form No. (M)8C} for using the same as and when necessary.

ICT Work done in 2013:

The High Court Division of the Supreme Court got a special budget of Tk. 2 crore for IT development works in 2013. This money has been utilized to expand computer network to the administrative building 2 and 3, and also to purchase Anti-virus software for 500 users with license and 190 Personal Computers and same number of Printers. Moreover, voice recorders and flash drives have been bought for all Honorable Judges of the Supreme Court with this fund. For increasing the security of Supreme Court premises, 53 CC Cameras were installed in different places. To improve the Network and Communication system instead of old Proxy Servers, Modern Internet Gateway System known as Unified Thread Management System (UTM) has been established. In October, the manpower recruited by outsourcing for case data entry, was brought under ICT Department and was fully engaged in data entry activities. As a result, the data entry activities were expedited, especially data entry relating to disposal of cases has marked significant progress. In December, the internet bandwidth of Supreme Court was increased from 6 Mbps to 12 Mbps.

Leading Decisions of the Supreme Court of Bangladesh in the year 2013

In view of Article 111 of the Constitution of People's Republic of Bangladesh, the law declared by the Appellate Division of the Supreme Court of Bangladesh is binding on all courts within the territory of Bangladesh including the High Court Division of the Supreme Court. Every judgment delivered by the Appellate Division has its own significance. Brief note of some judgments, delivered during the year 2013, is given below:

1. DR. Tapan Kumar Dey vs. State, 65 DLR (AD) 1: The High Court Division ... took the view that the very failure on the part of the petitioner to submit wealth statement within the period as was asked for itself constituted a separate offence within the meaning of the first part of section 26(2) (Ka) of the (Durnity Daman Commission) Ain, 2004, therefore, he was liable to be proceeded with. We do not find anything wrong with the finding of the High Court Division. (Para 8)

2. Siddique Ahmed vs. Government of Bangladesh and others, 65 DLR (AD) 8: The supremacy of the Constitution was unqualified, it is unqualified and it shall remain unqualified for all time to come. (Para 141)

3. Siddique Ahmed vs. Government of Bangladesh and others, 65 DLR (AD) 8: The Constitution being the solemn expression of the will of the sovereign people of Bangladesh is sacrosanct and immutable and all organs of the Republic owe its existence to the Constitution. It is supreme in all respect. The Martial Law Proclamations, Regulations and Orders are non est before it. (Para 143)

4. Siddique Ahmed vs. Government of Bangladesh and others, 65 DLR (AD) 8: No authority in Bangladesh can oust the jurisdiction, powers and functions of the Supreme Court granted under the Constitution. (Para 145)

5. Siddique Ahmed vs. Government of Bangladesh and others, 65 DLR (AD) 8: The Constitution is the supreme law of the country and the National Assembly, all Divisions and branches of the executive including the armed forces and the Judiciary including the Supreme Court owe their existence to the Constitution of the People's Republic of Bangladesh. It is further unhesitatingly declared that any law, Proclamation, Regulation or Order, inconsistent with the Constitution, that law, Proclamation, Regulation or Order, no matter who made it, is void, and non est in the eye of law. (Para 148)

6. Siddique Ahmed vs. Government of Bangladesh and others, 65 DLR (AD) 8: The Constitution is the Supreme law and its any violation is void and illegal and remains so for all time to come. The plea of waiver or acquiescence is not available in respect of violation of any law. If it is violated, the Court is bound to say so, no matter when it is raised. There is no period of limitation, no waiver, no acquiescence in this respect. (Para 177)

7. Siddique Ahmed vs. Government of Bangladesh and others, 65 DLR (AD) 8: There is no law called 'Martial Law' and there is no authority called the 'Martial Law Authority' in our jurisprudence. ... The Martial Law Proclamations, Martial Law Regulations, Martial Law Orders are all illegal, void and non-est in the eye of law and could not be ratified or confirmed even by the Parliament through Fifth Amendment of the Constitution. (Para 243)

8. Siddique Ahmed vs. Government of Bangladesh and others, 65 DLR (AD) 8: Our Parliament is supreme but unlike the Westminster Parliament, its supremacy is subject to the Constitution, similar to that of the Congress of the United States. Our Parliament can make and unmake any law but within the bounds of the Constitution which is the embodiment of the will of the sovereign people of Bangladesh. It can also ratify any Ordinance made by a lawfully elected President, following a proper and lawful procedure but cannot ratify and confirm any illegal Proclamation, Regulation and Order by whomsoever it was made. (Para 253)

9. Amir Hossain Sowdagar vs. Md. Harunur Rashid and others, 65 DLR (AD) 130: Equity does not give any special remedy to a party who has chosen not to perform his promise. Performance of one party's promise may have to be completed or tendered before he can sue on the other's reciprocal promise. No man can complain of another's failure to do something, which he has himself made impossible. This principle is not confined to acts of direct or forcible prevention, which are neither frequent nor probable, but extend to default or neglect in doing or providing anything which a party ought under the contract to do or provide, and without which the other party cannot perform his part. Therefore, there is no doubt that the defendant was in breach of the terms of agreement and abruptly cancelled the agreement and forfeited the advance money. Where one party is guilty of a breach which goes to the root of the contract, the other party may elect either to affirm the contract, i.e. to regard it as still binding or to treat the breach as a repudiation of the contract which discharges him from further liability. (para-9)

10. Metro Makers and Developers Limited vs. Bangladesh Environmental Lawyers' Association (BELA) and others, 65 DLR (AD) 181: Right to life includes right to protection and improvement of environment and ecology, even if there could not have been any law imposing restriction relating to the use of the nal lands in the areas in question which operate as reservoir of flood and rain water. If these lands are filled up it will cause serious problem in draining out water resulting from flood and rain and the affected people can compel the authorities through judicial review to take steps to preserve and protect health, environment and ecology in the Metropolitan areas. The fundamental right of the third party purchasers cannot override the fundamental right of overwhelming number of residents of the metropolis under articles 31 and 32 of the Constitution. (Para 166)

11. Government of Bangladesh and others vs. Md. Badal and another, 65 DLR (AD) 246: When specific criminal cases had already been started over the dispute as detailed hereinbefore, the High Court Division should not have entertained the writ petitions and the Rules issued therein should have been discharged on the ground of maintainability. (para 20)

12. Jamuna Television Ltd. and another vs. Government of Bangladesh, 65 DLR (AD) 253: Power granted under Article 104 of the Constitution is an important constitutional power granted to this Division to protect the citizens. While exercising its inherent power under Article 104 this Division cannot override the statutory provisions. (para 65)

13. Mahbub Ahmed Chowdhury vs. Chief Election Commissioner and Others, 65 DLR (AD) 283: Parliament has plenary power of legislation over all subjects excepting those in respect of which the Constitution has delegated its power to some other authority or in respect of any such subject matter about which limitation has been imposed by the other provisions of the Constitution. In other words, the plenary powers of legislation of the Parliament are limited by the fundamental rights guaranteed by Part III of the Constitution. Therefore, Parliament cannot enact any legislation contrary to the provisions of the Part III of the Constitution relating to fundamental rights. (Para 13)

14. Monowarul Huq. vs Bangladesh, 33 BLD (AD) 49: Where the government has taken a policy for leasing out the vessels in open auction, the Court will not interfere with the matters of government policy. In such situation, the courts of law have to be very wary and must exercise their jurisdiction with circumspection for, they must not transgress into the realm of policy making, unless the policy is inconsistent with the Constitution and the laws or the action is arbitrary, irrational or in abuse of power, the Court will not interfere with the matters. (Para-17)

15. Secretary, Ministry of Establishment and others. vs. Amzad Hossain and others, 33 BLD (AD) 303: The prayer to the effect "and/or such other of further order or orders as your Lordships may deem fit and proper" do not authorise a writ Court to give relief beyond the Rule issuing order, such prayer authorises the writ Court to give any incidental relief or reliefs which may follow from the main relief according to the Rule issuing order.

16. Narendra Chandra Das and another vs. Sree Sree Gopal Bigraha and another, 21 BLT (AD) 1: A shebait does not acquire any title to the Debutter Property. The Debutter Property cannot be alienated by him except in case of unavoidable necessity. ... (T)he shebait can reside in the suit property for the purpose of performing religious rites. It does not create any title in his favour. (Para 14)

17. Humayun Hossain Khan vs. Government of Bangladesh and others, 18 MLR (AD) 5: Where the language of a statute is plain and admits of but one meaning, the task of interpretation hardly be said to rise. It is also a rule of interpretation of a statute that where, by the use of clear and unequivocal language capable of only one meaning, anything is enacted by the legislature, it must be enforced however harsh or absurd or contrary to common sense result may be. (Para 13)

18. Humayun Hossain Khan vs. Government of Bangladesh and others, 18 MLR (AD) 5: Reading section 47 and sub-section (3) of section 60 of the Ain, 2003 together, it does not appear to us that any bar has been put by the legislature either upon the financial institutions to pursue the suit on the claim more than 200% over the actual loan disbursed to a loanee here the appellant filed before 1st May, 2004 or upon the Artha Rin Adalat to entertain any such claim made by a financial institution like the plaintiff on the allowable bank interest in vogue at the relevant time or as per terms of the contract entered into between the parties. What appears to us is that a clear discretion/option has been given upon a financial institution to fall back upon the provisions of section 47 of the Ain, 2003 in waiving claim of its dues more than 200% over the actual loan amount in respect of the suits filed before the said section came into force on 1st May, 2004. So the Artha Rin Adalat could not force the plaintiff-bank to exercise such discretion/option in favour of the loanee, the appellant herein. (Para 12)

The Supreme Court Bar Association

All the practicing Advocates of both the Divisions including the Advocates-on-record are the members of the Supreme Court Bar Association. The Supreme Court Bar Association always plays active and vital role in protecting the supremacy, dignity and the integrity of the Supreme Court. The Association is housed in two buildings one is known as the main building which is two storied and the other known as the annex building which is 3 (three) storied. The present Association has a legacy of the then Dhaka High Court Bar Association, housed in the old building of the then High Court of judicature at Dhaka, established after the creation of Pakistan in 1947. In 1967 the then High Court of judicature at Dhaka was shifted to the present main building; 4 rooms of the main Building on the western side were allowed for use of the learned members of the Association. The present main building of the Association was inaugurated in November, 1975 by the then Hon'ble President Mr. Justice Abu Sadat Muhammad Sayem, the first Chief Justice of Bangladesh. In both the buildings, rooms are allotted to the members of the Association to have their private sitting arrangements in carrying out their judicial works against monthly payments to the Association and such rooms are known as cubicles. Presently, there are 489 cubicles, apart from 3 (three) big hall rooms. The learned members of the Association, who can not be provided with cubicles, sit in the hall rooms. The Association has a modern auditorium. The Association has also a medical Care Centre in the ground floor of the main building, where a doctor sits regularly on the working days and provides medical treatment to its members.
